Noopura Bhramari (R.), an Institution par excellence with the intention of promoting research in the field of Performing Arts and deep study of all aspects of different Art-forms invites applications for its 2021 batch, to the course

nāṭyālaṅkāra

Short term Certificate Course on

Indian Aesthetics

(Specially designed for Performing Artistes)

Our institution fondly recollects the grand success of the completion of the course work in mid -2020. It is heartening that since then, there have been enquiries and requests for repeating the course work. Noopura Bhramari gladly invites the interested candidates to avail this opportunity! Annual batch for 2021 is beginning!

This course is specially designed for the performing artistes, and exhaustively covers topics on Natya Shastra ( with special focus), Indian and Western aesthetic theories, understanding of allied art forms; an introspection into the changing connotations of Angika of Classical dance forms with the detailed understanding on Marga and Desi forms; and of course an attempt to address the FAQs in the artistes' mind.
